

TWO GREAT NATIONS
THINKING OF WARENGLAND AND FRANCE ARE GETTING READY.Decided Action by France—Blockade of the Ports of Madagascar Proclaimed —Orders for English Troops and Activity in Naval Circles.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—England is likely to be in the throes of a pretty bad war scare within the next few days unless undoubted facts prove unexpectedly deceptive. The facts are that the ministers had decided that there was no occasion for them to meet at the council board before the end of the first week in November, when it is customary to hold a cabinet council and decide what announcement of policy shall be made at the lord mayor's banquet. Lord Kimberly, foreign secretary, has been in London occasionally since then, and has been much worried with the work, but the other ministers have been scattered all over England and the continent of Europe on a long-desired holiday.

Sir William Harcourt came to London yesterday morning and found everything quiet and departed on the 11 o'clock express en route for Milan, where he intends spending a few weeks doctoring. Within three hours after his departure urgent dispatches reached the foreign office and were telegraphed to Lord Kimberly. Later in the afternoon Lord Kimberly telegraphed to the Downing officials to convene an emergency cabinet council.

Strange to say, the addresses of several ministers, who were absent from town, were unknown in Downing street. The result was that cabs were soon tearing away to their London houses to obtain the necessary information. This having been obtained, telegrams in cipher summoning the council were sent to all the absentees. Harcourt and Campbell-Bannerman, minister of war, received their summonses in Paris and will return immediately.

Last night long dispatches passed over the queen's private wire between London and Balmoral. There is no reasonable doubt that another and very serious hitch has occurred in the diplomatic negotiations with France relative to Egypt and westward central Africa. Possibly fresh trouble also has arisen in connection with Madagascar. The current talk in official circles is of sensational developments in the French-Russian policy in the war east, but this appears to be conjecture. It is most probable that France, encouraged by the recent apparent weakness of the British foreign office, has suddenly sprung a demand upon the government which has staggered every Kimberly, and which, if persisted in, will bring about a crisis which may result in war, because Rosebery and his colleagues have almost reached the limit of their complaisance toward France.

The secretary of state for foreign affairs, the Earl of Kimberley, has been in communication with the Indian government and preparations are being made to concentrate English and Indian troops in readiness to proceed farther east. It is added that the sanction of the cabinet is necessary before any further steps are possible.

A dispatch received here from Portsmouth says that rumors are circulated there in regard to extensive naval preparations. The various heads of departments at the dockyard held a conference this morning at which the opinion of the officers was taken in regard to the time the first division of the reserve ships could be in readiness to put to sea.

The dispatch adds that the training squadron's departure for the West Indies has been postponed from Saturday next to Wednesday, and, if necessary, the cruise of this squadron will be abandoned and the men on board the training-ships will be transferred to ships which will shortly be commissioned.

The Madagascar Dispute.
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The dispute between France and England in regard to Madagascar is one of long standing. Madagascar is now virtually under a French protectorate, although it is claimed in England that at least one-seventh of the island is held by British capital. But the French embassy in London recently answered a communication from the Madagascar consul in London by a formal statement that officially there is no longer such person as a London Madagascar consul, as, it was added, the agents of France in various countries represent the Hova government.

Early last month the French government evidently determined upon taking decided action in regard to Madagascar, probably believing that the hands of England were tied by the complications brought about through the war between China and Japan. Consequently, M. Le Myre de Villers was sent on a special mission to Madagascar, and it was understood that he was to all intents and purposes instructed to demand the abdication of the government and to annex the island to France.

French Blockade of Madagascar.
ANTANARIVO, Madagascar, Oct. 4.—A blockade of the ports of the island of Madagascar has been proclaimed by France. The resident general has gone to Tamatave. He has been instructed to take measures to protect the colonists in the event of war.

WAR VETERANS MEET.

Reunion of Army of the Tennessee at Council Bluffs.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Oct. 3.—The twenty-ninth reunion of the Army of the Tennessee opened yesterday. Royal Arcanum hall was handsomely and appropriately decorated with a profusion of bunting and flags, while the walls were hung with life-size crayon portraits of Ulysses S. Grant, William Tecumseh Sherman, Philip Sheridan, John A. Logan, Russell A. Alger and a score of others. Nearly 100 members of the Army of the Tennessee were in their places when Gen. G. M. Dodge called the society to order at 10:30. He made a brief address of welcome and announced the appointment of the routine committees. Reports of the secretary and treasurer showed the organization in a prosperous condition.

Col. J. C. Stone of Burlington raised the question of female membership in the society by presenting a written request that upon his death his daughter be admitted to full membership as his successor. A resolution was adopted unanimously granting the request.

A letter was read from Mayor Ochs of Chattanooga, Tenn., inviting the society to hold its next annual meeting in that city. In the afternoon a reception was tendered the visitors at the residence of Gen. Dodge. In the evening the society, with its guests and friends, marched with the band, trumpeters and drum corps leading from the Grand hotel to Dohany's opera house. Gov. Jackson delivered the address of welcome and Mayor J. H. Cleaver responded for the society. Gen. Dodge followed with an interesting address on the society. A number of impromptu speeches were made, interspersed with music. An interesting program has been arranged for to-day.

PATH OF THE STORM
FULL OF WRECKAGELITTLE ROCK CYCLONE DOES
FEARFUL DAMAGE.So Far as Reported Four Persons Are Dead and Thirty-Four Injured—Streets
Blocked with Wreckage and Desolation Prevails.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 4.—Never in the history of Little Rock was there such a scene of wrecked and ruined buildings as is now presented. The streets are almost impassable and great yawning chasms in brick fronts told of the fury of the storm. The damage will aggregate almost $1,000,000. The only insurance held by the sufferers amounts to $2,500.

The death list now known is not so large as was expected, but there are several persons missing and their names may yet be added to the roll of the dead. So far as reports received now indicate four persons are dead and thirty-four injured.

Almost every building between Main and Markham and Third and Main streets was unroofed and in numerous instances entire fronts were leveled to the ground. On east Markham street the destruction of property was greater than elsewhere. Several large buildings were leveled and not one escaped injury. Windows and doors were blown out, tin roofs carried away, telephone and electric light wires blown to the ground, and poles twisted off at the curbing.

It was at the insane asylum where the most complete wreck was to be seen. The buildings erected by the state at a cost of $300,000 are located on a prominence three miles west of the business portion of the city and offered a splendid target for the fury of the storm. The ruin was not complete, but the damage is estimated at $75,000 to $150,000.

Besides the destruction wrought in the main building, the east wall of the male ward was completely torn away. Wards 1, 3, 5 and 7 are a total wreck. The roof is blown off, and debris has been found half a mile east. Pandemonium reigned after the fury of the storm had been spent. The cells in the south wing were occupied by inmates at the time. Fifteen escaped, but all except seven have been recaptured.

The storm did damage at the state penitentiary estimated to aggregate $30,000. The hospital building was uninjured except for the wrecking of several chimneys and a portion of the roof. The two-story stable, blacksmith shop and woodshed that stood in the center of the yard was badly wrecked, being torn down below the second story. Several head of stock were killed.

Fully 200 citizens escaped death in a most miraculous manner. Telegrams from all sections of the country offering assistance were received by Mayor Hall yesterday. All the injured, with few exceptions, are doing nicely.

LOSS OF TWENTY LIVES.

Steamer Brings the News of the Destruction of Dagna Village.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Ward line steamer Saratoga, from Tampico and Havana, arrived in port yesterday. Capt. Berle says at Havana it was reported the little village of Dagna, about 120 miles to the eastward, had been almost entirely demolished and that about twenty people had perished. The report was meager and no estimate of the damage done to property could be ascertained. Of the reported destruction of more than half of the town of San Domingo Capt. Berle said he had heard nothing.

ALASKA NEEDS LAWS
TO FIT HER CASEASKS CONGRESS TO MAKE IT A
TERRITORY.Reports of Indian Agents—Increase in Allotments of Lands Believed to Be a Step Toward Civilization.—Gen.
Armstrong's Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Another effort is to be made during the coming session of congress to enact legislation for the better government of Alaska. Residents who have made investments are anxious to have laws provided which will make more secure property rights, and which will also establish closer commercial relations between the territory and the United States. It has been suggested that one of the first steps toward bringing Alaska in closer communication with the United States and making it more useful to the government would be to organize the territory as other territories have been organized and send a delegate to congress to represent it, who could point out the needs of the people of the territory to the legislators. The idea is combatted by those who claim that at present there are not enough white people in the territory to constitute a representative government and that the native population has not yet attained a degree of intelligence to entitle it to participate in government affairs.

Because of lack of legislation the development of Alaskan mines, which are said to be very rich, is retarded. Most of these mines are of a character that require a great deal of machinery and considerable capital must be invested before any results can be obtained. It is possible that in the short session of congress there will be no time for passing adequate laws for the proper government of the far northwest territory, yet the men who have been pushing west for many years are determined that something must be done for Alaska and her interests will be pressed upon congress in the short and, even if no action is taken, it is expected that the way may be paved for something substantial in the next congress.

Gen. Armstrong, acting commissioner of Indian affairs, says that the annual reports received from various Indian agencies show that on the whole the Indians were reasonably prosperous during the last fiscal year. The death rate has not been large nor does there appear to be any decrease in the number of Indians under the charge of the government.

Often it happened that the settlers themselves, whose presence was so very much desired, were responsible for the fires.

EASY FOR DIRECTUM.

Nelson Is No Match for the Black Trotting King.

PORTLAND, Maine, Oct. 4.—At Rigby park yesterday all admirers of Nelson were forced to admit he is no match for Directum. Nelson drew the pole and, after scoring twice, got the word in the third trial. Nelson led at the first quarter in 31¼, also at the half mile in 1:03¼, and three-quarters in 1:35¼, with Directum right at his wheel all the way. Then the little black stallion began to creep up and down the homestretch, gained faster and faster, passing under the wire a length ahead of Nelson in 2:10. The second heat was slower but rather better than the first as a spectacle. Nelson closed up the first quarter and headed Directum on the second quarter. From there to the homestretch the two handsome horses came around as if they were harnessed. Near the wire Directum shot ahead and won by half a length in 2:13¼.

In the third heat at the third quarter Directum led by four lengths, and when the wire was reached Nelson was so far behind that his driver had slowed him down, as thoroughly beaten as possible. Directum's time was 2:08¼.

MISS WILLARD SEES
BELOIT ONCE MORETEMPERANCE WORKER VISITS
ROCK COUNTY.

Called Back by the Death of Mrs. Minerva Brace Norton She Is Invited to Address the Congregational Convention—Plea for More Motherhood in the Church.

BELOIT, Oct. 4.—Miss Frances E. Willard, the famous president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the World, having been called to this city on account of the fatal illness of her cousin, Mrs. Rev. Minerva Brace Norton, who was in her youth a resident of Janesville, was invited to speak at the Congregational convention yesterday afternoon. She gave a very pathetic address on church work, pleading for a larger motherhood in the church. She said she had been a guest in more than one thousand homes, and she felt that each Christian home is a church with its altar. She desired to see the church made a home for the children. She also spoke of her brother Oliver being educated at Beloit, and proud she was to stand and address such a remarkable assemblage, where he had stood years before and delivered his salutatory oration; and she also related many instances that brought tears to the eyes of all present.

Professor Blaisdell made tender references to Rev. William Walker of Milton, whose eightieth birthday occurred yesterday. He had given his life to Christian work and was for forty years a foreign missionary, and has translated the bible, and at the suggestion of the professor, the vast audience rose in recognition of his grand work for humanity. The old missionary was overcome at this mark of respect, and buried his face in his hands.

The delegates and their hosts were served supper at five o'clock in the church parlors. Between three and four hundred plates were served.

The convention listened to several good papers and addresses today, and will be brought to a close tonight by talks by Rev. Thomas C. Hall of Chicago, and Rev. G. A. Hood of New York. This is acknowledged the largest and most profitable convention of the Congregational denomination ever held in the west.

INVOLVES 26,000 ACRES.

Manitoba Railroad Against Russell Sage,
Assignee in Trust.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 4.—A suit involving the title to 26,000 acres of land was argued before Judge Williams in the United States court room yesterday. The case is that of the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railroad company against Russell Sage, assignee in trust. The suit was brought by the railroad company against Russell Sage, trustee, successor to the Hastings & Dakota railway company, to recover about 26,000 acres of land certified to the state of Minnesota by the interior department for the benefit of the Hastings & Dakota Railway company and by the state deeded to Russell Sage. The lands are within the primary or place limits of the Hastings & Dakota road, but without the primary and within the indemnity limits of the grant of the Manitoba company, but not selected by that company to make up deficiencies until long after the map showing the definite location of the Hastings & Dakota line had been filed in the interior department and accepted. Judge Williams took the case under advisement.

Dill was re-elected for another year, as was also Grand Treasurer Wiley M. Egan, who has served in this capacity for the last twenty years. ## Hitch Over Temple Cup Games.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 4.—It seems that Messrs. Hanlon and Ward have decided to divide the gate money received in the games for the Temple cup between the Baltimore and New York teams. This it appears they had no right to do. Any games played between two clubs contrary to the rules must be regarded as mere exhibition games. It is uncertain whether the teams will play to-day.

INSURANCE FRAUDS TOO EASILY HIDDEN

STATE INSPECTION IS NOW A HOWLING FARCE.

Expenses of the Commissioner Are Paid By Companies Without The Audi Secre te
—The Work Done by Inexperienced
Men.

A movement will probably be made this coming winter to pass a bill reorganizing the insurance department of the state. It appears that the importance has never been attached to this department of state government which its duties and responsibilities demand. Neither has it been judged aright from a financial standpoint by those who were looking for political plums. But its importance is just now being more fully recognized than ever before, and it is believed a different situation of affairs can only be secured by a reorganization of the department. The fact is well known that the head of the department is not always a practical insurance man, and in fact the rule has been made that he came from some other walk in life and was compelled to begin at the beginning of insurance and learn this peculiarly technical business before putting himself in any kind of a position to make a success of his office. It is not possible, or at least not probable, that an expert insurance man will be given the nomination in every instance for this position, and therefore the move will be made to ask the legislature to provide that the insurance department shall have a skillful actuary on its pay roll at a reasonable salary for the work he is to perform.

That the examination entrusted to him instead of to the commissioner. Then if the salary of this actuary be paid out of the state treasury and the companies be charged for the expense as now, but required to pay it into the state treasury instead of into the hands of the insurance commissioner, a better situation of affairs is possible, with no chance for a suspicion of jobbery with regard to the examination of companies.

The statutes governing the office of insurance commissioner are lacking in safeguards. He is entrusted with large discretion in the making of examinations, and his per diem and mileage for such work is to be paid by the company examined, with no auditing oath as to the number of miles traveled or days spent. The secretary of state has no record of this, and it is possible for him to tax any insurance company what he wishes or receive as much as the company desires to give him for the purpose of influencing his decision as to the merits of the company, and no clue to the matter can be obtained. Hence, it is seen that he is able to add materially to his salary by diligence in examinations until it is common talk among the politicians at the capital that the office of insurance commissioner can be made to pay the most liberal salary of any office in the gift of the people. The commissioner receives ten cents a mile for travel and five dollars a day for expenses in making the examinations of companies, and by combining on a single trip east or west or south, several companies can be made to pay mileage from the capital and return, and with loads of passes in his pockets the commissioner can come back with much more wealth than when he started, and draw his fair salary besides. Add to this the temptation to take a still more liberal compensation when the company under examination is willing to pay it, and the commissioner is in a position to make a handsome thing out of the office. The companies do not even advise the secretary of state what they pay the commissioner for his work, and hence, as indicated, the people are in the dark as to the profits of their agents.

An examination of an insurance company is of little value unless thoroughly made by one who understands the business, because the possibilities of an ingenious officer of the company hoodwinking the commissioner are too well known to need comment. The people remember the examination of an insurance company at St. Paul some time ago, which was reported all right and yet was in the hands of a receiver in a few days. This was not laid at the door of the commissioner at the time as willful statement of facts, but was clearly demonstrated to be the result of ignorance of the methods of companies, due to inexperience in this kind of work. The commissioner may be a good man, in other lines, but it will be demanded of the coming legislature that an expert be put in the insurance office in whose hands the matter of examination will be left, and that the companies be compelled to pay for the examinations to the secretary of state and that officials draw warrants upon sworn vouchers for this expense.

The assessment insurance has increased remarkably within the last few years in Wisconsin and there is a demand for a revision of the law relative to them. For example, when the organization of an assessment company is contemplated under the law governing procedure. Pledges of 500 members are required to be filed in the insurance commissioners office before authority to organize can be granted. One company which was organized April 1, 1893, furnished a list of 500 names to the commissioner and permission was given to organize, but during the year following the company issued only 164 policies, and at the end of the year only 131 were in force. The liabilities largely exceeded the assets under the sworn statements of the officers, and yet this company is doing business in this state today without objection of the commissioner in the face of the report on file in his office. The law manifestly intended that when the organization of such a company was completed it should have a list of 500 members, but in this case the company organized and solicited insurance when it had less than 200 bona fide members, a clear violation of the spirit of the law.

With the reforms suggested the insurance companies in the state believe that honest insurance would be benefited, and the people protected from fraud and possible injury both in fire and life insurance, and some check be placed on the movements of the commissioner, with a removal of probability of prejudiced examinations.

THE HOKEY POKEY CLUB DANCES

First of the Series Given Tomorrow Evening at the Armory.

None of the Hokey Pokey club's guests need be told that the series of dances to be given by the club this winter will be thoroughly enjoyable. The first party will be given tomorrow evening. The armory will be decorated with flowers and Smith's orchestra of five pieces will furnish the music. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock, sharp, and it is quite important that all be present at that hour. It is the desire of the club to give a first class party and those who attend will doubtless pass a most delightful evening.

JUST A FARM FAIR NOT A SIDE SHOW

MILTON JUNCTION SCORES AN-OTHER SUCCESS.

No Attractions But the Farm Produce And Woman's Handiwork, But the Crowd Was Enough of a Drawing Card In Itself—Displays Were High Grade.

None of your side-show, striking-machine, horse-race fairs for the Milton Junction man. Farm produce and poultry, frosted cakes and needlework. These are attractions enough, he says. He proves it by pointing to the crowds at the fair Du Lac Grange holds once a year. But he underestimates his town. The ostensible attractions are just as he lists them. In reality, however, they are but half the show. Better than all the prize pumpkins, forty pound turnips and fragrant butter are the local pride, the community of interest and the neighborly emulation.

Just such a fair as Milton Junction gives cannot be found in a good many days. That isn't because of its size. Odd Fellows hall, with one store underneath holds all the exhibits, but the very compactness of it tends to sociability, and makes the Junction fair peculiar to itself. Not in all the three days of an ordinary county fair would there be the visiting, the discussion of farm plans and methods, the comparison of results that are seen in one day with Du Lac Grange. A good many Janesville people visit the show each season. This year E. B. Heimstreet, S. B. Kenyon, Walter Helms, A. M. Glenn and S. L. James were there, with their wives; while Cyrus Miner, W. T. Vankirk, Sheriff Bear, I. A. Whiffen and numerous others went alone, and were treated as well as if they had been bachelors. President W. C. Whitford, of Milton college, had dismissed school for the afternoon. He had to shake hands with everybody in the crowd before they let him look around in peace.

Superintendent David Throne was known to everybody by his first name, and was greeted in like fashion. Hon. Andrew Barlass wore his honors and his gold watch modestly, and tried not to show pride over being declared the most popular farmer in the county. H. E. Huxley of Neenah, ex-secretary of the state grange, James Hopkins of Fulton, S. H. Joiner of La Prairie and Dr. Tinker of Clinton, were among the well known men from outside of Milton who swelled the throng.

Displays Were Very Good.

Let no one think from the stress laid upon the drawing qualities of Milton Junction hospitality that the exhibits themselves were poor. No finer corn, potatoes, squashes or cabbages were seen at the state fair. Big sweet potatoes raised by J. G. Carr, told of Rock county's possibilities and a forty-nine pound pumpkin gave further proof. S. H. Joiner's prize potatoes ran 190 bushels to the acre. The grain display was fair and apples very creditable. S. C. Carr managed the produce department; C. K. Plumb, the horticulture; Mrs. T. McRae, the poultry; Miss Nettie Coon, the floral; Mrs. J. M. Clarke, the culinary; Mrs. R. J. Greenman, the fine arts and William Paul the games. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Helms and Mrs. S. B. Kenyon were among the judges. J. G. Carr is president of the association, W. A. McEwan secretary and John Stockman vice president. What they had to do is indicated by the fact that 170 persons made entries, many entering as many as fifteen or twenty articles. Most of the prizes were contributed by Milton and Milton Junction people. Nearly every business man in the two towns was on the list.

Nobody was allowed to get bored during the day. About 2 o'clock music by the Milton Junction band announced the beginning of the games. "Willie" Paul's champion tug-of-war team pulled Captain M. F. Palmeter's Milton team over the line after a desperate struggle. Fred Borden ran faster than dignified Stewart Chambers and won a dollar. C. B. Pierce rode a mile on his bicycle in 2:39, two seconds faster than L. Moffett could do it, and Ed. Fulton, R. H. Plumb and Will Burdick finished first, second and third in the wheelbarrow race. The foot race for boys under eighteen, went to Earl Partridge, although Frank Ross and Fred Osborne forced him all the way. Ralph Plumb got first honors in the twelve year old cly, Ed. Fulton and Howard Plumb finishing second and third. And the girls ran, too. Oh, dear, yes. Little Carrie Triple made a red streak down the road for a hundred yards and got first money. Lillian Coon getting second. Adele Osborne and Cynthia Daggett were the winners in the race for older girls. R. J. Greenman's team of boys pulled harder than Sheriff Bear's team, and won a bushel of apples.

How the Prizes Went.

Prizes were liberal. The list cannot

SAID FAREWELL TO REV. REQUA

Court Street People Gathered Last Night and Surprised Him.

The good will of Court Street M. E. church people was expressed last evening to their late pastor, Rev. E. W. F. Requa, by filling the parsonage on Bluff street to overflowing. The company assembled at the Sunday school room at 7:30, and with baskets and packages favoring strongly of eatables, made an unlooked for raid on the reverend gentleman and his family, taking them completely by surprise. The church was very largely represented, and a liberal sprinkling of outside friends indicated the wide influence of the retiring pastor. During the evening S. D. Conant presented the family with a token of remembrance, assuring them of good will and best wishes in their new field of labor. Music, social chat, and a bountiful spread made the evening very enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. Requa have a host of friends in Janesville who have learned to appreciate their many sterling qualities. That they will be appreciated at their new home in Stevens Point, is not a question of doubt.

NEW ZEALAND WOMAN LEADS THE BALL.

The Dress Reform Association of That Happy Land Has Found Countless Women Rampant for a Change in Dress.

NOWHERE IS THE great woman movement so rampant as in New Zealand. It is New Zealand that has given the world a lady mayor in the person of Mrs. Yates, who rules the destinies of the township of Onehunga, a near Auckland. Wellington also furnishes the case of a wedding recently in which lovely woman asserted her individuality. The lady went through the marriage ceremony up to the point when she was asked, "Wilt thou have this man?" Here she drew up by replying, "No; I won't have him," and she persisted in that mood till 10 o'clock the next morning, when, having sufficiently vindicated her natural liberty, she consented to the ceremony being concluded. This may be a case of eccentricity; but a much wider significance must be given to another wedding, which has been celebrated at Christ church under the auspices of the New Zealand Dress Reform association, says the Pall Mall Budget.

The bride, Miss Kate Walker, and the bridegroom, Mr. J. R. Wilkinson, had recently joined hands on "Dress Reform and What It Implies." Not satisfied with this achievement, they resolved to show what the dress reform implied by donning the reform garments on their wedding day. The result—surely a unique one—is shown in the cut. The enterprising bride, like Strephon in "Iolanthe," was divided into two parts as it were, the upper part of her dress consisting of the conventional bride's veil and the lower sinking into a modified pair of breeches. Her costume was of stone blue bengaline, with vest and revers of white silk, embroidered with gold. She wore a beautiful wreath of jessamine instead of the time-honored orange blossom, and, although gloves were discarded, a lovely veil was worn, not, however, over the face, but thrown back and falling in long, graceful folds over the shoulders. The bridemaid, Miss Nellie Walker, wore a suit of cream silk, with a beautiful lace collar. The lady in whose house the wedding took place wore a brown cashmere suit, trimmed with handsome braid. The suits were nearly all of the same design, neatly-fitting knickers, long coat, with revers, and

WOOL GOWNS.

Autumn Styles in a Great Variety of Weights and Weaves.

The autumn importations of wool and silk and wool goods are beautiful and varied. In black goods alone there are shown a great number of different weights and weaves, crepon effects, stripes and figures being all seen. Plain goods also, henrietta, serge and the new waterproof material called cravenette—a hard twisted light-weight stuff that does not crumple—are fashionable, while on entering the domain of color so large a field for choice is opened that it is confusing to a woman who has not previously decided upon what she requires. A wide variety of two toned woolen goods is shown in all tints, figured and plain, woven on the same principle as changeable silk, while in solid colored materials covert cloth and serge, with smooth finished cloth, are in the ma-

WOOL AND VELVET COSTUME.

For. Besides those already mentioned there is an endless show of checks and plaids, both large and small, mixed goods, boucle goods, and goods with a pattern of one color laid on a ground of another. These last materials are better for combining with plain stuff than for making up into entire gowns.

Velvet and satin re-employed for trimming, moire having begun to decline in favor. It has already outlived its usefulness, being of transient beauty and quickly rendered shabby by dampness and wear. A good quality of satin or peau de sole is the most serviceable of silk goods. Spangled passementerie has fallen greatly in price, which may be taken as an indication that it is no longer esteemed by fashion authorities. It would naturally decline with moire, as it belongs to the same era of glitter.

A sketch is given of a pretty wool gown of blue and beige goods. The skirt has two large plaits at the back and opens over a panel of blue velvet. The round bodice is crossed in front and confined by a velvet belt fastened with a gold buckle. The back has two velvet bretelles terminating in two long ends falling over the skirt. The vest and revers are of velvet, the latter being trimmed with gold and black spangled lace. The gigot sleeves are plain. JUDIC CHOLLET.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

If You Are Thin, Eat Peanuts, and if Wrinkled Don't Worry.

Peanuts, long despised as vulgar and indigestible, are now stated to be a healthful and valuable article of food and are recommended to thin women as an easily obtained and inexpensive fattening diet.

If you would avoid wrinkles, care not only for your skin, but your nerves. Control your temper and do not try to have a too expressive and vivacious countenance. Sleep nine hours a night and an hour a day. Decline to worry. Wear smoked glasses, instead of scowling fiercely at the sunlight and the water. Refuse to try to distinguish things afar off. Wash your face in warm water with pure soap once a day and rub it softly with flannel after washing.

Silk petticoats are to be the only fashionable ones this winter, the necessary warmth being secured by a lining of silk or light flannel. The faint rustle of silk, like the tinkling of ornaments, is considered by many persons to be one of the greatest charms of feminine costume.

The favorite coiffures continue to be simple ones, the hair being waved and aranged in a knot either high or low, as best suits the shape of the head. The elaborate arrangements seen in hairdressers' models are seldom adopted by women of the best taste.

Crocheted thread lace is still the popular fancy work of the moment. A number of pretty patterns are shown for detached squares, 4 or 5 inches in diameter. These squares are often crocheted of tinted cotton and are used in curtains and for other decorative purposes.

Pockets are coming into fashion again. Some of the new capes have them placed conspicuously on the outside, and they have even made themselves evident in the basque.

Now that the time of afternoon teas approaches the tea cozy becomes of interest. The sketch shows one made of smooth cloth, wadded and edged with silk cord. The decoration consists of a design embroidered in chenille and fluted ribbons. JUDIC CHOLLET.

A Mustache Over Seven Feet Long.

The people of Bellington, W. Va., are proud of one of their citizens, whose only claim to greatness is his enormous beard and mustache. His name is Brown—plain James Brown—but nature could not hide his identity even in the Virginia mountains, especially after bestowing upon him such an enormous beard. Brown is 6 feet 1 inch in height, but even his great stature does not hinder his chin beard from trailing on the floor when he stands erect. The mustache is even a greater curiosity than his beard, being exactly 7 feet 4 inches "from tip to tip."—St. Louis Republic

While Secretary Morton is in Europe, playing "me too" to Congressman Wilson, the administration democrats in Nebraska are being driven from pillar to post by the Bryan-populist combine. Mr. Morton may find a demand for his peacock feathers awaiting him when he returns to the department of agriculture.

When the republican party is returned to power, as it will be in 1896, there will be no occasion for the labor unions to insure their members against loss of employment, as has been proposed in Cincinnati. Republican rule makes employment for all who wish it.

Having temporarily failed in her effort to elevate the stage Madeline Pollard is having a "go" at journalism. Her first article was very naturally a criticism on the private lives of public men. She got her knowledge on that subject at first hands.

POISONED BLOOD

Is a source of much suffering. The system should be thoroughly cleansed of all impurities, and the blood kept in a healthy condition. S. S. S. removes Chronic Sores, Ulcers, etc., purifies the blood, and builds up the general health. It is without an equal.

Ira F. Stiles, of Palmer, Kan., says: "My foot and leg to my knee was a running sore for two years, and physicians said it could not be cured. After taking fifteen small bottles of S. S. S. there is not a sore on my limbs, and I have a new lease on life. I am seventy-seven years old, and have had my age renewed at least twenty years by the use of S. S. S."

A PLUCKY WOMAN.

AND WHAT SHE WAS ABLE TO ACCOMPLISH.

She And Her Daughter Have a Remarkable Experience—She Was a Hard Working Person and Will Interest All Workers.

All kinds of diseases and weaknesses leave their marks on the system. It is very easy for the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys to become deranged, and when they do, the person soon feels tired, languid, weak, low-spirited and gloomy.

The nerves become weak, and insanity or paralysis may follow! The blood gets bad, there is a coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, the complexion grows sallow and life looks dark. All persons complaining of any of these troubles will read with wonder the following letter from Mrs. James Roake, a well-known lady living at 145 Washington street, Peckskill, N. Y.:

"About fifteen years ago I was taken very sick. After seven months I got over that, but have never been well since. I have suffered terribly with pains in the chest, back, kidneys and head. There was a disagreeable feeling in the eyes and I would be very sick in the morning.

"My mind was always gloomy and I felt low spirited. I had terrible numb spells and would have to be rubbed some time before I could get around. Some of these numb spells were so severe my friends thought I would not recover from them."

"I tried doctors and medicines but got no better. Finally I began the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, as my husband had been most miraculously cured by it. After using it a short time there was a wonderful improvement.

MRS. JAMES ROAKE.

"I continued to steadily gain in every respect until I was cured of all these terrible aillings. This wonderful medicine had now cured my husband and myself of the most fearful suffering, but this was not all. I now want to tell about my little girl.

"She has never been well since she was born. No doctors have known just what ailed her. She was out of her mind most of the time and had constant pain in her side. She has had spasms continually, from six to seven a month.

"She is the smallest child for her age that can be found. All medicines could do nothing for her until I gave her Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and then she was cured in a short time. I cannot say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine. It has done so much for me and my family. I heartily advise everybody to take it."

If you have any of these complaints or for any reason don't feel just as well as you want to, take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and you will be made well and strong. It positively cures all such complaints.

All physicians recommended it, as it is the discovery and prescription of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases; Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th Street, New York City. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

BARLEY AS PLUNDER FOR A FARM THIEF

NEWS OF THE DAY IN BRIEF FORM.

By Running Your Eye Down This Column You Find Out What Is Happening In All Parts Of the Bower City—Short Supper-Time Songs.

JANESVILLE police officers are on the watch for Fred Luckow, a tenant farmer on the Gardner farm in the town of Bradford. Fifty bushels of barley disappeared from the granary of Mr. Wall. The next morning Wall tracked the wagon to Luckow's house and found the grain in the wagon, but Luckow was not at home. Yesterday Luckow was seen on River street, but the officers had no warrants and their man disappeared. He has not been seen since. The taking of the barley revives the stories of live stock stealing in Shopiere a year or so ago, in which Luckow figured in the courts.

Jno. E. Brown, of Erie, Pa., one of the largest stockholders in the Colby Piano Works, is in the city, the guest of their local Colby representative, D. W. Koller. Mr. Brown is very much pleased with Janesville, and especially with Koller's work, but Mr. Brown says "Koller can't help sell pianos, as he is representing the best piano in the world."

RAY COX, the six-year-old son of Miles Cox of the Riverside Hotel, was thrown down by a little playmate, Roy Lighthizer, while on his way home from the Central school yesterday afternoon. His left arm was broken at the elbow joint and the bone split. Dr. Palmers says the arm is likely to be stiff.

MISS NELLIE BROWN's nineteenth birthday was marked pleasantly by a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, five miles from the city on the Magnolia road. Music was furnished by Luckwood's orchestra and a big canvas-covered platform on the lawn gave room for dancing.

The funeral of Frank Langer was held from St. Mary's church at 10:30, Rev. Father Roche conducting the funeral services. The interment was in Mount Olivet. The pall bearers were William Kennedy, John Cunningham, Valentine Beers, Joe Walitz, Frank Schneider, John Monaghan.

SIMPLY marvelous values. Strong expression, but you will say not too strong when you learn the prices at which we are selling dress goods, heavy beaver shawls, calicoes, blankets, hosiery, silks, fur capes, cloaks, fancy drapery silks, table linens, etc. We have received more new goods than all the rest of the dry goods houses here put together: we own them at lower figures than any other merchant owns like qualities. The new tariff has made much difference in the prices of many kinds of goods, and we have adjusted our prices accordingly. Do not load up with goods before coming to The Big Store, if you do, you will regret it. We make no wild statements. Come in and look around. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

Powder and Patch.

Wigs are of very ancient origin. According to Xenophon, Astyages, king of the Medes, wore a wig. In the writings of Livy, Plutarch, and many others, references are made to this covering for the head, which was made of hair, silk, thread, or other material. The ancient Romans were prone to use the natural hair, and preferred the blonde locks of the Germans. It is stated that "Henry III., of France, having lost his hair by sickness, wore a wig, and his courtiers began to follow his example." At the time of the French revolution both wigs and powder disappeared; but the large white wig is still worn by the English judges.

WEDDINGS OF A DAY AROUND THE COUNTY

NOTABLE CEREMONY IN MILTON THIS AFTERNOON.

Miss Eda Crandall Becomes Mrs. Dr. Sheppard—S. P. Hoskins of this City Takes a Bride In Perry, New York—Jackson-Strickler Nuptials Last Evening.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Estee at Milton, this afternoon when their daughter Miss Eda L. Crandall was married to Dr. Mark Sheppard, of Alfred, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. M. Dunn, assisted by Rev. W. C. Whitford. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and autumn foliage. The bride was attired in a changeable silk and wool traveling gown and carried La France roses. A breakfast followed the ceremony. The bride's table was decorated in white and yellow, while ten small tables were each beautified with a distinct decoration in flowers and china. Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard left this evening for Alfred, N. Y., which will be their future home. The good wishes of a host of friends to whom the bride was especially endeared, both for her charming personality and her many graces of mind and heart, follow them and if Mrs. Sheppard but gives to her new social life, something characteristic to her able, active, artistic, generous, and forcible self, Alfred is certainly to be congratulated upon this addition to its society.

Jackson-Strickler. Twenty-five guests were grouped about the parlors of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Strickler's bluff street home last evening, when the words were said that made Miss Minnie Strickler Mrs. Bey C. Jackson. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock, bride and groom being unattended and Rev. Dr. Hodge being the officiating clergyman. An elaborate supper followed the ceremony and in the merry hour that followed friends did their best to express the good wishes that all felt. Handsome presents told the same story most substantially.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson took no wedding trip, but took possession at once of pretty apartments at 251 Glen street.

Tregoning-Abendroth. The marriage of Miss Mary L. Abendroth to Richard Tregoning, of Mineral Point, took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August F. Abendroth. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock, in the presence of a company of relatives and friends. Miss Lucy Haley officiated in the capacity of bridesmaid, and John Flynn was best man. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. George Kaempfein, of St. John's German Lutheran church. The young people left to-day for a brief wedding trip, but will make Janesville their home, the groom being a brakeman on the Chicago & Northwestern, with a run from Janesville to Green Bay.

Hoskins-King. Samuel P. Hoskins of this city, was married at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at Perry, New York, his bride being Maria F. King of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins will spend the winter in New York state.

NEW STYLES IN MILLINERY. Mrs. M. E. Woodstock Has Something to Delight the Ladies.

That hats will be picturesque rather than bizarre; that the lovely shades of cerise and Jacqueminot are combined to best advantage with black and golden brown, that blue, though rather trying when next to the skin, is as striking as it is fashionable when used to give a dash of color in a hat of somber hue; that toques will rival the large hat in popularity and that long sweeping plumes and pert coque feathers and aigrettes are equally fashionable—such are a few of the facts gleaned from a glimpse of the millinery establishment of Mrs. M. E. Woodstock, whose opening commenced last evening.

Talk about openings! Mrs. Woodstock's was the most brilliant place to be found in the city last evening. The display of beautiful hats could not be surpassed either at home or abroad. In pattern hats some beautiful creations of the French milliner are shown. The whole display is wonderfully pretty, and the hats and bonnets have evidently been selected with the best taste, for they are just the sort that women will buy and be pleased with—not the usual atrocious exhibition hat which inspires one with awe but no longing for possession.

There will be a new supply for this evening, and all who could not be waited on yesterday and last evening, will find plenty to select from to-day. The opening will continue through this evening. The mandolin club discoursed beautiful strains of music, and standing room was at a premium. Nearly all of the hats sold were high priced ones, and as these were almost all taken, Mrs. Woodstock has sent for a new supply of pattern hats, which will be here for Saturday. Not a lady in the city should miss this opening, as it is the grandest in Mrs. Woodstock's history, and she has given some fine ones heretofore.

First Snow of Season in Illinois. ELGIN, Ill., Oct. 4.—A cold wave struck Elgin yesterday and was accompanied by a flurry of snow, the first of the season. The mercury fell more than 20 degrees during the day.

Messrs McKerzie and Clarke will represent The Gazette in this work, and courtesies shown them will be thoroughly appreciated by the paper.

Directum and Alix Matched.

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio, Oct. 3.—Just before the opening of the races here yesterday the much talked of match race between Alix and Directum was made. It is to take place within the next thirty days. The race is for $2,500 a side. The profits of the gate wherever the match takes place, which under the agreement is to be determined by Saturday, Oct. 6, will be divided in the following manner: The winner is to receive 75 per cent and the loser 25 per cent.

Elevator Superintendent Suicides. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 3.—William Bain, superintendent of the Millers & Grand Elevator company, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head in the warehouse of the mill. Bain was 56 years old, married, and resided with his brother at Webster Groves, Mo. No one could advance any cause for the act of self destruction.

Bad Coupling Costs Two Lives. OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 3.—The local train of the Narrow Gauge road lost one of its cars at a drawbridge near Webster last night. Fifteen passengers were in the car when it left the track and fell into the water beside the track. Two train hands were killed and one passenger injured. Several other passengers were injured, although not seriously.

New Canadian Railway Planned. MONTREAL, Canada, Oct. 3.—A cablegram from London to the Montreal Star says: "A scheme is on foot to develop a through route between Bale des Chateaux on the north shore of the St. Lawrence and Sault Ste. Marie, via Montreal and Ottawa, which would compete for the traffic of the western states."

Struck by a Train. WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 3.—A wagon containing a ton of smokeless powder was struck by a train near here yesterday and hurled twenty-five feet. Strange to say there was no explosion. The driver of the loaded wagon was severely injured by being thrown from his seat.

Japs Invade China. SHANGHAI, Oct. 4.—It is reported that the Japanese have captured Kiu Lien Cheng, on the eastern side of the Yalu river. One hundred and fifty thousand men have been gathered at Peking for the defense of the city, but of this number only 7,000 are effectively armed. Only 50,000 soldiers are available for the defense of the province of Chi-Li-Ku and these are raw levies.

Wants the Bryan Ticket Ignored. LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 4.—Ex-State Chairman, Martin of the democratic party has filed with the secretary of state a remonstrance against the fusion ticket certified and filed by the regular democratic state central committee. It is asserted that the state convention was not in harmony with the national platform, but repudiated that platform and consequently the remonstrator argues that the acts of this state convention are null and void.

Swept Clean by a Forest Fire. GRANTSBURG, Wis., Oct. 4.—Word is received here that a hurricane of flames swept over the Black Crook country, twelve miles north of here, burning everything in its path. As this section is composed of new settlers it leaves them in a pitiable condition. An appeal will be made to Gov. Peck for aid. A relief committee has been organized here.

Losses by Fire for One Week. CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Fire losses for last week entailed a loss of $5,010,000, of which fires doing damage of $10,000 or more contributed $4,670,000.

WILL NEVER AWAKE FROM THAT STUPOR

BERNARD ROHKRAMER DIES EARLY THIS MORNING.

He Becomes Unconscious While Sitting In Buob's Brewery and Is Carried Home In the Patrol Wagon—Apoplexy Manifests Itself and Death Follows.

Barnard Rohkramer died at his home, 128 Glen street, early this morning of apoplexy. He went to the brewery at the foot of Main street yesterday afternoon and drank three glasses of beer. Soon after he fell into a stupor and in the evening was taken to his home by the patrol. Dr. Dudley attended the patient at the brewery, and also at his home in the evening and says that his death was caused by hemorrhage and apoplexy.

Mr. Rohkramer was about sixty-five years of age, and lived with his wife on Glen street, where he ran a small garden. He was on the eve of better times expecting every day to receive a remittance of $2,000 from the old country, as his allotment of an estate. He had been twice married, his first wife dying of cancer many years ago in Madison. His second wife survives. The funeral will probably be held on Saturday.

Funeral of Mrs. Minerva B. Norton. Funeral services over the remains of Minerva Brace Norton, wife of Rev. S. Norton, will be held in Beloit, Friday, at 10 a. m. The interment will be at Janesville upon the arrival of the 11:55 a. m. train on the Northwestern road.

Mother at the Tea Table.

There is one word which once spoken lingers on the tongue forever. It is the picture of a face. Living or dead, near or far, it remains ever the same. Neither the passage of years nor the changes of time can cause its beloved features to fade from our sight. Neither the singing nor the cursing of the world ever drowns its music. This word is mother. Mother at the tea-table; mother pouring the tea. How the dear, sweet face rises to view as you remember! Do not think that we who bring you your tea are not mindful, that our business connects us pleasantly with hundreds of happy homes, and the loving memories of life. The best that nature gives to our seeking we give to you, the Monarch tea, at 50 cents a pound, and handsome silverware thrown in.

ON THE STREETS OF NEW YORK.

An Incident of Metropolitan Life from an Out of Town Paper.

It happened that one cold, stormy night in New York two ladies were returning from an entertainment when they saw lying across the sidewalk a young man in a drunken sleep. He had on his dress suit, a fine overcoat and wore valuable diamonds. The ladies were well enough acquainted with the ways of the city to know that if the man was left where he was he would be robbed of his money and diamonds. There was not an officer in sight and the ladies did not know just what to do. Finally one of them said:

"Well, I am not going to leave him here to be robbed. He's evidently a gentleman, and I am going to arouse him." So they shook the man awhile and stood him against the wall, and one supported him while her companion sought an officer. The latter soon came and aroused the young man, who was amazed when he saw into what good hands he had fallen. He was quite overcome in trying to thank the ladies. He assured them he was just returning from a swell wine supper and was not in the habit of drinking. Then he offered them money, but the older woman said:

"Keep your money, my boy. I have a son about your age, and I only did for you what I hope some one would do for him if he ever so far forgot himself as to become intoxicated."

Then she walked away, and the young man muttered:

"By jove, if he ever breaks your heart he ought to be killed, for you're an angel."

The Alaska Boundary.

A part of the expedition which has been engaged in surveying the boundary between the property of Great Britain and Alaska has returned to Washington. The joint survey of the boundary by the United States and Great Britain is now practically complete, and the departments of the respective countries may begin work at once on the conflicting claims. The greater portion of the region purchased from Russia is definitely located on the 111st meridian. The object of the English is said to be to force the line down to cross some of the broad inlets which would give them water access to their own territory, so that they would be entirely independent of United States custom regulations.

One of the interesting facts established by the expedition was that Mount St. Elias is not on the United States territory, and that it must give precedence in regard to height to three mountains further inland, which all stand in British possessions. The height of Mount St. Elias as determined by this year's party is 18,033 feet, while Mount Logan is 13,534 feet high. The other two peaks are nameless as yet. There was no lives lost in the expedition and the trip was regarded as being very satisfactory.

Sir Francis Jeune's Collection.

Sir Francis Jeune, president of the English admiralty court, has under his custody the manuscript originals of the Black Book of the Admiralty, the old Oaths Book and the Sea Laws of Oleron, and of the silver staff of the admiralty marshal. The Black Book is on vellum, slightly illuminated, in old French and Latin, and contains 252 pages, written in different hands and at different times. On the inside of one cover is the name "Clynton," with the motto "Loyalty na honta," written by the lord high admiral in 1556; the signature "T. Norfolk," probably Thomas, duke of Norfolk, high admiral in 1514, occurs four times. The contents deal almost exclusively with admiralty ordinances and practice. One piece is a record of an inquisition taken in 1375, and the date of the whole manuscript is probably earlier than the time of Edward III.

SIR FRANCIS JEUNE.

Uses of a Camel's Hump.

The queer questions of the world asked at the menageries and zoological gardens. At least, so the keeper of the animal house at Central Park says.

To illustrate this point in a single instance, he narrates the following as an actual occurrence. It relates to a man from the rural district, who for half an hour or so had been watching a camel.

"Can you tell me, sir," asked the stranger, "what that hump on the animal's back is for?"

"What's it for?" queried the other, in surprise.

"Yes, what's it for? Of what value is it?"

"I was really so taken aback," said the keeper, "that I couldn't help giving the 'guy' a 'jolly,' and so I said:

"Why you see, sir, you don't suppose folks would come miles to see this animal or pay 25 cents at a show to see one of it didn't have a hump. A camel without a hump might just as well be a cow. It's the hump that makes it an attraction. That's its use."—N. Y. World.

Proportion of Solids in Milk.

According to A. Schmid, chemist to the Swiss Canton Thurgau (Chem. Zeit.), in 70 per cent of the samples of milk examined the total solids exceeded 12.5 per cent; in 20 it ranged from 21.5 to 12; and in four only did it fall below 12 per cent. Hence it appears that the demand of 12 per cent solids (and 3 per cent fat) as a minimum is not exorbitant. According to the same journal, 12 per cent solids, including 3 per cent fat, is the minimum permissible in Basle city.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach and I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken every kind of remedy and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 100 lbs. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Pittsboro, Pa., October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This last part will conclude with a very complete and carefully prepared index of the whole work, by the aid of which any person or event in the entire history can be referred to at once.
